Foreword

The ideals of this year's graduating class can best be expressed by an excerpt from a speech to have been given by the late John F. Kennedy.

" . . . This is a time for courage and a time of challenge. Neither conformity nor complacency will do. Neither the fanatics nor the fainthearted are needed . . . Let us stand together with renewed confidence in our cause . . ."

The challenge is here and now. The world is in a continuous state of unrest. Our own country is fighting the forces of racial and religious prejudice. This generation, the product of our times, must face the challenge with courage and unity.

We must use our education to discern falsity and deception. The guidance of the adult world of today must help us overcome the obstacles before us in our world of tomorrow. We must show a singleness of purpose in the struggle for peace and knowledge.

To many of us, Mr. Raymond C. Smith is a disembodied, though familiar voice on the radio. He broadcasts the school program at noon and all Sturgis High School football and basketball games. In reality, Mr. Smith is much more than a radio commentator. He has taught in the Sturgis school system for twenty-one years, he is a guidance counselor, and he is instrumental in the summer Day Camp program. Mr. Smith teaches American literature and English 9. A career of forty-six years as a teacher has made him an efficient and capable instructor and an understanding and sympathetic counselor.

To you, Mr. Smith, in thankful recognition of your long years of devotion and service to youth, we the class of 1965 dedicate the 1965 Sturgensian.

We Dedicate This Book To You

of Providing the Best in Education

This group of dedicated men has been constantly devoted to the cause of better education in the Sturgis Public Schools. They have given of their time unselfishly to provide higher quality teachers, curriculum, and equipment for the benefit of every student from elementary school through graduation. Their effort for our schools should not pass unnoticed because they are not personally in evidence. Their influence is everywhere. Our deepest gratitude and respect reflect their continuing concern that each student receives the best education possible from the Sturgis school system.

Superintendent and Principal Present

Each year students, faculty, parents and others look forward to the publication of the yearbook. Many become curious as to the format of THIS year's book and how it differs from preceding years. After the initial curiosity has been satisfied, a deeper interest develops as one browses through the yearbook, looking at the pictures and articles.

Life perhaps could be compared to looking through the yearbook. There is curiosity about new things happening, but this is often a surface interest. For those who are to succeed, a more lasting interest must be developed. As one develops meaningful interest, it becomes evident that challength are ever present. Challenges set goals and as these goals are accomplished new goals develop.

The theme of this year's yearbook is "Challenge." The Sturgensian Staff, the Faculty Advisor, and all other people responsible for the production of this fine yearbook have met their "challenge" by having the yearbook completed and published.

Now it is up to each of us to meet our challenges as we travel the highway of life and as we refer back to this year's yearbook in years to come, reminiscing, we will be reminded that the 1964-65 yearbook staff challenged us to meet our personal goals.

Congratulations to all on this fine yearbook.

Sincerely yours,

Warren J. Fudge

Messages to Student Body

I am happy to have the opportunity to congratulate the Sturgensian Staff, the Faculty Advisor, and all the other people who have been responsible for the production of this very fine yearbook.

The theme of this year's yearbook, "Challenge," seems very appropriate and should definitely be thought provoking for all of us at this time.

This yearbook depicts through words and pictures an accurate and interesting history of the many activities of Sturgis Senior High School throughout the past year and portrays the personal characteristics, ambitions, and accomplishments of the individual members of the Senior Class. The value of this yearbook to its possessors will increase as the years go by, for it will serve as an enjoyable source of information during the many occasions for reminiscences which will present themselves in the future.

Sincerely yours,

Robert M. Miller

Seniors Enjoy Last Times

I'm sure the students this year, have noticed a tall blonde walking down the halls of S.H.S., with a certain fella. We all know her as, Karen Kuhnhenn, our exchange student from Lubeck, a city in West Germany. Karen is an only child and lives with her mother and grandparents when she is at home. This year she made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sigrist and their three children.

Karen loves people and wanted to come to the United States to learn English more thoroughly and see life from a different perspective. She finds the climate goes from one extreme to another; and believes teenagers over here have more freedom, especially when it comes to school. She said school wasn't any easier, but that kids took it more in their stride.

Karen has had a busy schedule. She has been active in G.A.A., Pep Club, Art Club, French Club (in which she was elected President) Debate and Forensics.

Her courses included: American literature, U.S. history, government, French, and college English.

The students at S.H.S. have enjoyed having Karen here with us this year. It has been a good year, Karen, and one which will be long remembered.

This year's varsity proved to be a pleasant surprise. Throughout the year, not much was expected from the boys that composed the '64-65 squad. Predictions placed the team in a scramble for the T-V basement. The result was altogether different. The composite picture shows a 10-9 win-loss column and a 7-5 T-V record which was good enough for third position behind Hillsdale and Albion. Spirit, hustle, and key strategy by Coach Dillon seemed to pave the way to Trojan success. In tournament play, Sturgis advanced to the finals of District No. 5 play. There, they were stung by the Hornets of Hillsdale in a heartbreaking one point decision. This was as good a showing as any of the Sturgis "fives" of the past few years have done.

Co-captain, Jim Rommel, the team sparkplug, led the team in scoring, finished third in T-V scoring, and also rated high in assists. Stan Davis finished in the top five in league assists. Co-captain Jim Miller and senior, Bill Strodel helped to clean the backboards for the Trojans. Both registered high in the league department. Jim got a late start in the season due to injuries, but came on strong later to be of great value. Bill was also a good defensive man, which helped gain victories. The team led in Twin Valley defense, an overlooked aspect in basketball. The fifth senior, Lee Lahmeyer, had the difficult task of being fill-in man. He had to be ready to substitute for any player. Juniors Tom Wenzel and Mike Yoder saw considerable action this year, and will provide a good basis for next year's team. All the boys did outstanding and commendable jobs.

This year's Reserve team compiled an overall nine win and seven loss record. This does not indicate the whole story. The games that the team lost were close and contested right down to the final buzzer. Another handicap to the squad was the periodic loss of regulars to the varsity during the season. Coach Frank Tufts has done an excellent job of grooming the boys. Coach Dillon will have an outstanding field to select a sound varsity team. Next year will bring a fine club and record to Sturgis High.

Tip it my way.

Little Men on Road to Varsity

Don Gage and his freshman crew enjoyed a fine 13-4 record during the 64-65 campaign. Throughout the year the boys played good ball and showed marked improvement. This group coupled with the Reserve squad will give the coaches an abundance of choice material with which to work. The basketball future of Sturgis will be a bright one.

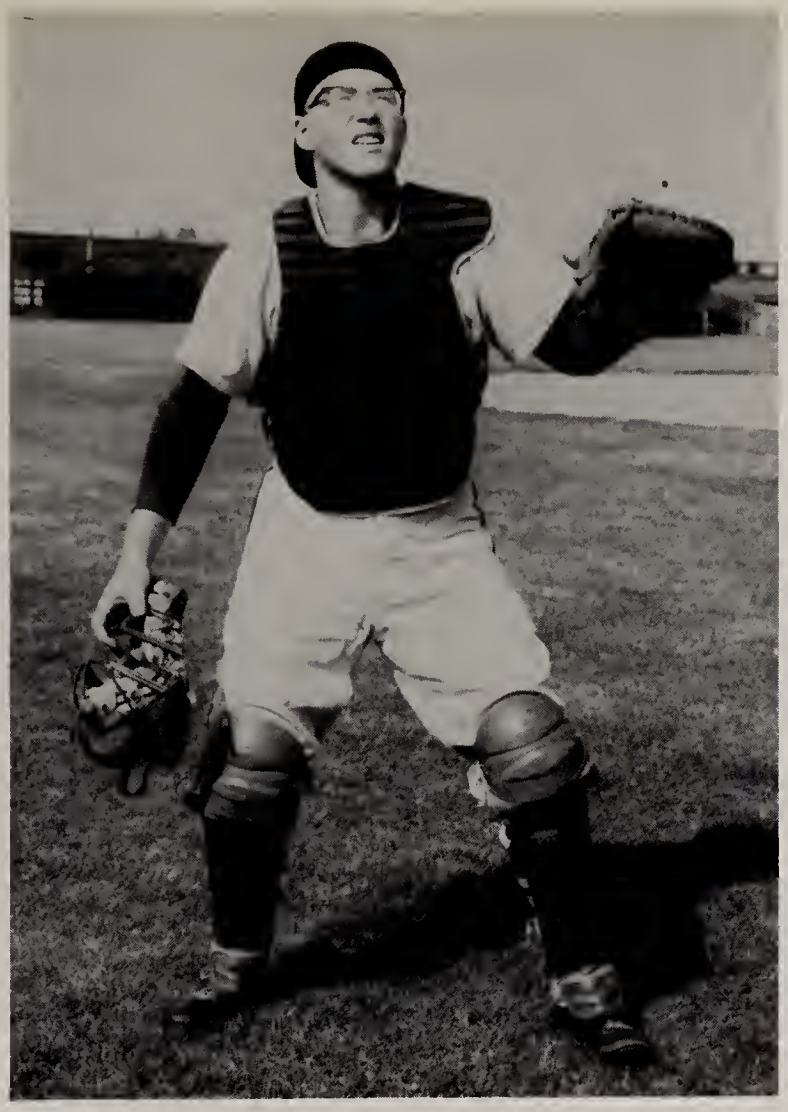
Baseball Teams Slug

Though the 1964 baseball team did not have a winning season, it did show flashes of potential. Injuries to pitchers Denny Gilbo and Tom Dillon cut team strength. Next year the team will have a good nucleus of returning lettermen—Jim Rommel, Lee Lahmeyer, Bob Persons, and Jim Coy who was voted the most improved player.

Don't throw it to me!

The reserve team breaks even this year with a 7 and 7 record under the fine tutelage of Coach Oom. The experience should pay off for the varsity team next spring.



Here come those sparrows again!

The 1964-65 Trojan wrestling team should certainly be congratulated for concluding another fine season with a win-loss record of 9 and 3. The squad also won the Coldwater Invitational. Sturgis—back in Class-B competition—won the Twin Valley Conference and placed third in the Class-B Regionals. Seven of the grapplers placed in regional competition and two—Don Falkenstein and Tom Vernon—took a 3rd and a 4th, respectively, in the state meet.

A large number of boys showed an active interest in the Reserve wrestling program. Although they couldn't all wrestle at the matches, those who did showed fine potential for future varsity matmen. This sport takes a great deal of endurance and desire. The squad had plenty of these qualities. The end of the season brought out a 10-3 record. Coach Ginther will have many experienced boys to fill the spots vacated by the Seniors next season.

GYMNASTICS

Gymnastics is held every day after school until 4:30 under the direction of Mr. Murlyn Myers. Twenty-two boys participated this year. Each week there is an intra-squad meet, and there were also two meets in Quincy, and one in Hillsdale. The team is improving each year and this year was no exception.

Cross Country Team Runs 500 Miles in One Season

COACH JACK GRANT—without his bicycle.

The 1964 Cross Country squad came through with a 6 and 5 winning season. In Twin Valley action, the harriers placed second, a step behind champion Marshall. To do this, the thinclads finished second in the T-V meet and also won four league dual meets against two defeats. Graduating this spring will be Phil Hull, David Noble, Ron Smoker, Bill Strodel, Tom Vernon, and Ray Holtz. Next fall's team will have a good nucleus. Tom Blodgett, state meet qualifier, Chappy Cleveland, Howard Terrell, Mike Yoder, and Pat Long are the returning lettermen. These boys, plus the younger talent, should be enough to bring a T-V crown to the Trojans.

Track Team Represented at State Meet

The perfect form of a hurdler.

In dual meet competition, the track team completed its short spring season with a 5-5 record, a third in the Twin Valley, and a tenth at the Marshall Relays. It also participated in the Michigan State Relays and the Mansfield Relays in Ohio. Senior, John Johnsonbaugh, at the Champion of Champions meet, broke his own record in the shot put with a throw of 52′ 3½″. Jim Miller also reset the high jump mark with a leap of 6′ 3½″. Jim qualified for the state meet. Besides John Johnsonbaugh, the team lost a good quarter-miler in Tom Dillon. The 1965 team should be strong and prepared for a busy schedule.

In this, the 1965 Sturgensian, we have tried to make you aware of the challenges present in our lives today and tomorrow. The abstract design of our cover, which is carried throughout the book on the division pages, and the unusual color scheme represent the abstract idea of "challenge."

The production of a yearbook is a job requiring the efforts of a great number of people. We can never fully thank our staff who have worked with us so many endless hours. Thank you is not a sufficient word to express our appreciation to Mr. Tudor for all his help and guidance, and to Mr. Niles for his never-ending patience. Special recognition is also due to Elliot Wait and Bill Strodel, who, though not on our staff, contributed copy for our book. We also wish to thank you, the students, faculty, and administration for your cooperation.

Many hours have been spent in compiling this book, but a feeling of success on our part will come only if you enjoy it as much as we enjoyed putting it together.

In closing, we would like to wish the very best of luck to you in whatever you attempt.

Co-editors Ginny Wheat and Pat Mundy discuss articles for an approaching deadline with their faculty adviser, Mr. Tudor.

The TROJAN TIMES staff, under the capable direction of Mr. Turley Tudor, was successful for the sixth consecutive year in producing the school paper. It was published bi-weekly and occupied a page in THE STURGIS JOURNAL. Articles included something of interest for everyone: club news, school activities, sports, the "Student Spotlight," articles on various members of our faculty, alumni news, the Top Ten Tunes, S.H.S. Calendar, surveys of opinions on many topics, and outstanding articles written by other high school students.

Although it was rather difficult to meet those deadlines, everyone worked hard to publish a paper of which we can be proud.

J.C.L. Revives Character of Latin Ages

Junior Classical League is a national and world-wide organization. The meetings are held during class under the supervision of Mrs. Virginia Ash. Membership is limited to only second and third year Latin students. Activities include singing songs, (in Latin, of course), playing various games, and listening to records. J.C.L. also sponsored a noon candy sale during the month of February. In the fall, the students attended Latin Day in Dowagiac.

The elected officers were: Mark Myers, President; Annie-Laurie Wheat, Vice-President—1st hour; Louis Bonfiglio, Secretary-Treasurer—1st hour; Jon Rhoads, Vice-President—3rd hour; Nancy Kimball, Secretary-Treasurer—3rd hour.

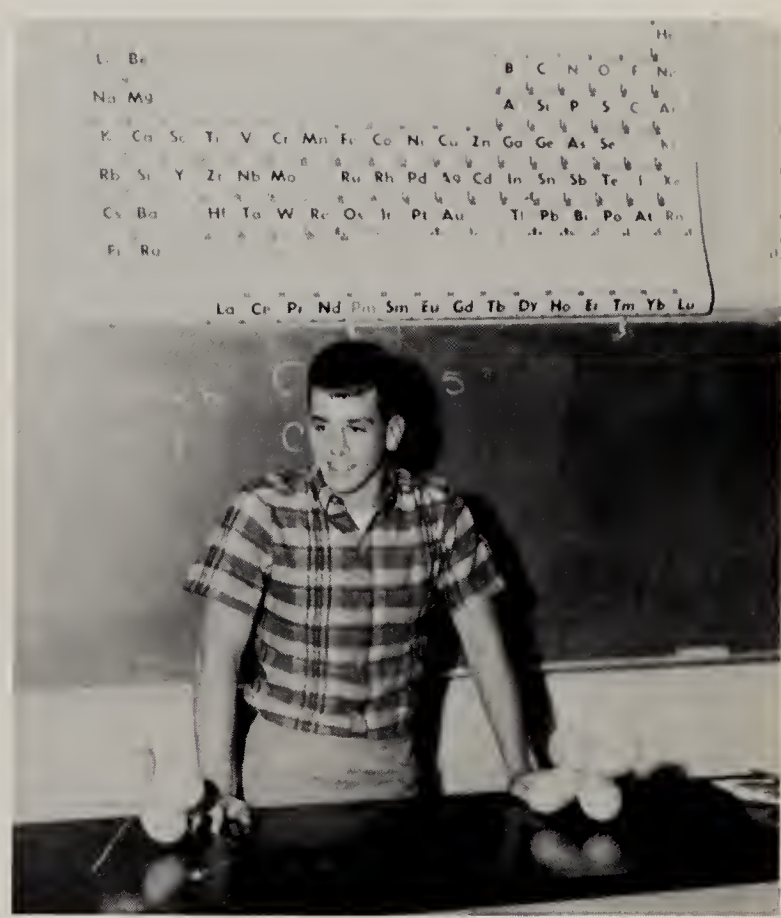
Le Cercle Français Approuve . . .

. . . La Nouvelle Constitution

For the first time the French Club came under the sole direction of Mr. Myron Casner, who initiated many new practices. The club starts its meetings with a ceremony in French, conducted by the officers who are: Karen Kuhnhenn, president; Ruth Peerbolte, vice-president; Nancy Gillespie, secretary; and Sue Schaeffer, treasurer. In addition there are programs of slides or speakers. France and its language certainly have come to life this year for the members of Le Cercle Français.

Science Explorers Affiliate With National Groups

Officers of the club include: Dennis Bothamley, president; Susie Bonfiglio, secretary; Carol van Almen, reporter; Dale Troyer, vice-president and program chairman; and Mark Vroegindewey, treasurer



Denny Bothamley presides over a monthly meeting.

Wendell Moyer and Inez Sutton work together in leading and helping the club members.

The Science Club, which was reorganized last year, is under the direction of Mr. Moyer and Mrs. Sutton. The purpose of the club is to foster pupils' interest in science and careers therein. Membership is open to anyone who is interested in science and who does a project or research paper dealing with some phase of a science.

Many varied activities were enjoyed by members of the club, including lectures, demonstrations, movies, and a trip to the Science and Industry Museum. In addition, the Science Club members took on the responsibility of managing the Science Fair as they did the previous year.

Future Homemakers Reorganize & Renew Activities

F.H.A.

With the capable guidance of Mrs. Robert Boyle, advisor, and Mrs. Ike Notestine, club mother, the Future Homemakers of America was organized for 1964-65.

The first formal meeting of the year started with installation of officers.

As a community service, the club took rolls to all the nursing homes and cookies to the Special Education School and the Froh Home.

The club attended a Fall Regional meeting in White Pigeon and planned a trip in the spring to the State meeting.

Officers: Sherry Brewington—treasurer, Ann Phillips—president, Susan Schaeffer—vice-president, Jan Wygant—reporter, and Fern Brock—secretary.

Members prepare Christmas cookies for nursing homes.

Club Membership Increases

Together with the officers, members plan monthly meetings and arrange for guest speakers. The members work for points doing special activities. During National Education Week they ushered at open house, gave apples to the teachers, and designed displays throughout the school. At Christmas, this group sent gifts for the children at the Training Center and donated to them $150.00 which was earned at their annual Thanksgiving Dance. Members also had the opportunity to attend the F.T.A. Workshop at Western Michigan University on November 21, and a sorority meeting in Vicksburg.

The future teachers worked together to gather gifts for children at the Training Center.

S.H.S. Forum Debates "Ban the Bomb"

Rarely does a week go by without seeing the Debate Club holding a 7th hour practice session. It has become part of the weekly routine here at S.H.S. to see them all assemble to add those important finishing touches. Of course this isn't the only time we see them hard at work. They are continually searching for information in libraries, a facility they have learned to use with the utmost skill.

In addition, debaters learn to take notes quickly, to speak effectively, and to use the criticism of many people, such as teachers and professors. The purpose of debate as an academic organization is not to entertain but to develop these things and an understanding of current events.

Instead of a team, a 16 member Debate Club called the Forum was organized this year. A constitution was written and officers were elected.

Through the well trained advice and the valuable guidance of Mr. Roger Zuercher, this club has had a successful season of 13 wins and only 7 losses. They have participated in 10 interscholastic debates and the district tournament at Kalamazoo College where they won 5 out of 6 debates. This gave them the opportunity to go to the Regional Tournament at Western Michigan University in March. Debate has established itself well as a valuable opportunity for young people at S.H.S.

Forum officers include: Jody Grismore, President; Jean Broadwell, Current Evidence Reporter; Stevie McBride; Vice-President; Ginny Wheat, Secretary-Treasurer.

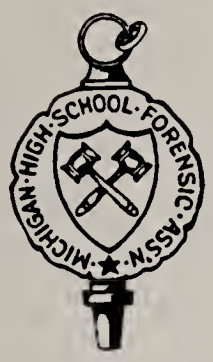
Forensics Encourages Students in Expressive Reading



The word 'forensic' refers to public discussion and comes from the Latin word "forum" (looks like the Debate Club stole a Forensics' word!) However, the extent of forensics includes many areas. The traditionally loved class clowns usually find their way into Humorous reading with everything from "Pigmalion" to "Winnie the Pooh." Interpretive reading gives our own "Charlton Hestons" a chance to develop their dramatic abilities in a highly expressive oratory. The class historian may dig into the past, tunnel through a famous speech or two, and climb back to the surface somewhere in the area of Declamation, exhilarated by the exercise. Speaking of exercise, imagination and creative ability are put to the test in Original Oratory, where students must write their own material. As the saying goes "last but not least" is Extemporaneous Speaking in which the student must be able to organize his thoughts quickly and express them clearly on a given subject.

Coached by Roger Zuercher and Kenneth Paulin, this year's participants in these areas have done a fine job. They took part in the annual forensics contest held in March, the winners of which go on to the District Contest.

JACK BITTLE, BAND DIRECTOR

DRUM MAJOR, LARRY BAYER

As always our Marching, Symphony and Concert bands followed a demanding schedule of performance. The marching band had a one hour concert at the Michigan State Fair in Detroit. The band participated in a 'pop' concert featuring Monk Watson, and collected a first division—the twenty-fourth in a row—in the marching festival. Hightlight of the football half time shows was a tribute to John Kennedy in which the band first utilized their colored cap lights.

The symphony band collected firsts in the state contest and the playing festivals. It had Christmas and spring concerts and was featured in many parades in the area. The band was recorded on WVOM, the University of Michigan radio station, appeared on WSBT-TV, and climaxed the year with the annual Band Bust.

The Concert Band, which was often combined with the Symphony band, gathered a first division at the district festival, performed a spring concert, and participated in the Band Bust.

With these formal divisions in the band, the Pep Band must be mentioned. They provided lively entertainment before and during half time at the Trojan basketball games.

MRS. ELAINE CHESNUT, CHORUS DIRECTOR

New Songs Introduced by

If you ever walk into the 5th or 6th hour study halls and see toes tapping and heads bobbing in a regular beat, don't be surprised—just listen and you will soon hear the distant strains of musical voices. Where is it coming from? Why, the chorus room of course! Come often enough and you may learn a few songs yourself!

These songs are of a wide variety, from semi-popular pieces to famous classics and Negro spirituals. All are done well under our new director, Mrs. Elaine Chesnut, who puts forth an extra effort to make chorus interesting and important to her young vocalists. Not only does she develop music in song, but also in theory, revealing many of the mechanics of this international language. They also work on sight reading, a dexterity few of us can enjoy.

The versatility of the two groups, (9th and 10th grades as one and 11th and 12th grades as the other) has been displayed in several of the school assemblies, one of which was a delightful pantomine of a "Deaf Old Woman." They also perform in their annual Christmas Festival and a Spring Concert in May.

This year the Chorus had the opportunity of attending an area Choral Clinic at Albion College and a Choral Festival at Portage. They also sent a representative to the Solo and Ensemble Contest in Coldwater.

Art Classes — The Environment of Creation

The Art Club got a late start this year, but Mr. Elmer Craig, adviser, made up for the lost time. The club usually meets on a Tuesday night. The members have had a variety of interesting speakers. A field trip was planned for the spring.

Club Intensifies Literary Interest

The Library Club, under the guidance of Mrs. Polleys, is a well known organization at S.H.S. Early in the year officers were elected who include Carolyn Perkins—president, Sue Kirkham—secretary, Pam Wilkins—treasurer, and Sharon Overholt—social director. The duties of the members include checking out books, keeping the file cards up to date, taking care of magazines, and aiding students in finding reference material. Each member receives scholastic credit for his work. They also are rewarded by the social activities in which they participate. This year they enjoyed a Christmas party and a trip to Berrien Springs Bookbindery.

Co-op — Academics Plus Practical Application

During the past fourteen years, Mr. Paul Casault, co-op supervisor, has given the senior students an opportunity to further their knowledge of workmanship, by obtaining jobs for them suited to their skills and interests. There are three fields that the co-op students may enter—trade and industry, retail selling, and office work. There are forty-three students who have taken advantage of the program this year. Each student must attend at least three hours of classes a day. Co-op is a full credit course and is available to the senior as long as his scholastic record is maintained.

The Youth Center Council with Mr. Paul Casault as faculty advisor has been busy this year at S.H.S. The list of activities starts with a council sponsored dance at which $150.00 was made and donated to the United Fund. These students also sponsored the New Year's Eve Record Hop, co-sponsored the Homecoming Dance, and several others. Besides planning these special activities, the council is busy handling the Youth Center itself, which provides recreation such as ping-pong, pool, and refreshments. They also arranged for the appearance of several bands, which provided live music for dancing. The officers this year are Nancy LeRouque—president, Tom Vernon—vice-president, Janet Royer—secretary, and Bill Pierson —treasurer.

Student Council Representatives Work Hard in Contributing to School Activities

The Student Council of Sturgis High School is composed of two representatives from each class. Their activities include planning and conducting the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter Assemblies which mark the beginning of each long awaited vacation. This year the council arranged for a new activity in the form of Senior Clash Day, when all seniors wore their loudest and most blinding outfits. They also handled the annual Dress-up Day for Seniors and co-sponsored the Homecoming Dance. The members are President—Jerry Sloan, vice-president—Judy Rice, secretary-treasurer—Susan Stark, Darlene Gose, Dave Studeman, Jim Holtz, Virginia Olds, and Kathy Fritz. Miss Whitelock advises the council.

Council members and guest speakers await opening of Christmas assembly.

Council President, Jerry Sloan, opens the program.

Varsity Athletes Prominent in

Each progressive year shows an increase in membership and strength in the Varsity Club. This year, there were sixty boys who had earned their varsity awards in athletics. Changes in the Constitution were made, and a variety of projects and activities were completed. Selling football programs at a real bargain, pillow and fertilizer bartering, hockey games, basketball games and indoor track meets were on the agenda. In the spring, all of the Seniors made their annual trip to Chicago. The Varsity Club provides many services for the school and is a much-noticed part of the system.

Cheers and Chuckles

We give a hearty salute to the 1964-65 Pep Club, which has done a tremendous job in keeping the student body full of pep throughout the year.

The many activities of the club have included skits for pep rallies, and bon fires before football games.

Officers this year were Cindy Lawrence--president, Mary McCarthy—vice-president, and Candy Millett—secretary-treasurer.

Coaches George Azar and Frank Tufts acted as faculty advisers.

on Apparatus and Mats

Under the supervision of Mrs. Helen Cripe, fifty girls have enjoyed tumbling, Tuesdays, after school. For participating, they received extra points in G.A.A.

Many girls, voluntarily gave up their noon hours to get ready to perform at some of the basketball games. Besides mat tumbling, they work on the parallel and unparallel bars, the horse, and the balance beam.

This recreation was open to all girls in tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades.

Will it make it or not?

"I'll get this one."

This one needs an assist.

Fun, folly, and physical fitness are the unwritten mottoes of the Girls' Athletic Association. Volleyball, soccer, archery, and badminton provide exercise, while the annual dances provide fun and work in planning. These dances include the initiation record hop, sock hop, and the Sweetheart Swing. In addition to this, the girls hold a pot-luck supper at the end of the year to present awards and elect officers. Members can be recognized by their traditional G.A.A. sweatshirts.

1964 Homecoming Queen, Judy Rice

The night of October 23 was one of excitement for Queen, Judy Rice, and her court, as they reigned over the 1964 Homecoming festivities. President of the Senior class, Gary Rifenburg, placed the glittering crown on Judy's head and gave her the traditional kiss. After the game against Three Rivers, the students proceeded to the cafetorium where they danced to the music of Bobby Wear and his orchestra.

The court members, elected by popular vote of the Seniors of Sturgis High, were Jane Royer, Lynn Large, Lee Ann Lichty, Cindy Lawrence, and Kendra Magnus.
